

Sgoil Earraich Nàiseanta

15th-17th November, 2019

Nunyara Conference Centre

Belair, South Australia

Learn Scottish Gaelic with friends from around the country at Sgoil Earraich Nàiseanta 2019! With by-level classes taught by experienced teachers, fluent native and non-native teachers will help you improve your Gaelic conversation, comprehension, and composition. So why not spend the weekend in the beautiful Adelaide Hills learning Gaelic?

Immerse yourself in Gaelic - with our residential format, there will be constant opportunities to use Gaelic in your daily activities, meals and socialising.

Learn through Gaelic song and hands-on cultural activities. Join in with music and social activities in the evenings, and take part in a traditional cèilidh.

The Scottish Gaelic Society of Australia is a non-profit community organisation supporting the language and culture of Scottish Gaelis in Australia. Members include native speakers and learners of the Gaelic language.
